

Curriculum Cycles

Curriculum cycles have been established at the elementary and secondary levels to ensure the periodic review and analysis of current practice and equitable distribution of district resources. During the review process the objectives are aligned with the Pennsylvania Department of Education Academic Standards to ensure that we are providing experiences for students to learn the concepts and skills recommended by these guidelines.