

Curriculum Leadership Team

A Curriculum Leadership Team, comprised of high school department heads, middle school subject area leaders, elementary standing curriculum committee co-chairpersons, building principals, and assistant principals is engaged in a continuous review of curricula to ensure the Dallastown Area School District program is current, relevant, and responsive to the changing needs of students and to the use of technology.