

Portfolio Assessment

A Portfolio Assessment process begins at the kindergarten level focusing on reading, writing, and mathematics skills.

At the middle level, two student portfolios are introduced: a language arts portfolio containing writing assessments, a reading log, and a content area writing selection, and a career exploration portfolio.

The career exploration portfolio follows the student through grade twelve and will include interest, aptitude, and a career survey in preparation for the secondary level Career Integration Program.